Consult your state's accrediting agency for its rules on admissibility of these courses for credit. In accordance with the standards of the National Registry of CE Sponsors, CE credits have been granted based on a 50-minute hour. In accordance with standards set forth in Treasury Department Circular 230 Section 10.6, credits have been granted on a 50-minute hour. The Internal Revenue Service Return Preparer Office accepts these seminars for Enrolled Agents (EA) and Annual Filing Season Program (AFSP) Participants.

It is our opinion that it also complies with the CE standards for members of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Your state board is the final authority for the number of credit hours allowed for a particular program. It is the responsibility of the attendee to understand and comply with state licensing CE requirements. Seminars are sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service and instructed by a qualified representative of the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS Nationwide Tax Forum is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org. Registration number: 103214.

The Internal Revenue Service is registered with the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. These seminars do not qualify for ethics credits for Certified Financial Planners (CFP). Seminars annotated with CFP do qualify for CE credits for CFP. The board has the final authority on acceptance of individual courses for CFP credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be addressed to: Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. 1425 K Street N.W., Suite 500, Washington, DC 20005.
